
Circle area proportional to cohort size. Red: specifications in which cells are missing because a treated country has a fitted propensity score numerically equal to one.